I. NAME, NATURE AND PURPOSE OF CICIAMS

Art. 1: Name and Nature

§ 1. The name of the Association of the Faithful is “Comité International Catholique des Infirmières et des Assistantes Medico-Sociales” (CICIAMS), in English, “International Catholic Committee of Nurses and Medico-Social Assistants”. CICIAMS is organised on the world wide and international level. National Catholic Associations of Nurses, Midwives and Health Workers may be organised by groups of countries, known as regions. The address of CICIAMS General Secretariat will be determined by the Executive Board and ratified by the General Council.

§ 2. The shortened name, CICIAMS, may be used on all deeds, invoices, announcements, issues and other articles issued by the association. The name CICIAMS is to be followed by the abbreviation INPO (International Non Profit Organisation) and the address of the association on all legal documents.

§ 3. CICIAMS is an International Private Association of the Faithful, doted with juridical personality according to canons 298-311 and 321-329 of the Code of Canon Law. CICIAMS headquarters is in Dublin, Ireland. This fixed headquarters can be changed with the approval of the Pontifical Council for the Laity.

§ 5. CICIAMS collaborates worldwide with intergovernmental organisations such as the United Nations Department of Public Information, ECOSOC and the World Health Organisation.
Art. 2: Mission Statement

§ 1. CICIAMS Mission Statement: Informed by the moral and social teachings of the Church, CICIAMS is committed to the following:

   a) Giving Christian witness in our lives through guiding and supporting Healthcare workers internationally

   b) Developing a positive vision of life from conception to death

   c) Representing Christian and professional values in our work with other national and international associations

   d) Coordinating the work of member associations in their efforts to evangelise the ethos and ideals of the nursing profession

   e) Promoting the initiation of and participation in professional research and development towards the achievement of optimum care and wellbeing

   f) Respecting the religious convictions of others and accepting their rights to practise their beliefs.

Art. 3: Aims

§ 1. The Aims of CICIAMS are:

   a) Representing the professional and Christian interests of its members

   b) Promoting the spiritual welfare and ethical values of its members

   c) Promoting health and social measures of health, following Catholic principles and professional development

   d) Promoting cooperation among member associations.

Art. 4: Means

§ 1. The Means of CICIAMS are:

   a) Organising seminars on relevant topics

   b) Encouraging and supporting member associations in their efforts to participate in professional activities and undertakings

   c) Supporting members especially in developing countries or in countries or regions in which there is instability or where natural disasters have occurred

   d) Facilitating prayer and liturgical worship, as appropriate, in connection with its activities
c) Publishing a newsletter at regular intervals to disseminate information and to promote unity among member associations.

II. MEMBERSHIP

Art. 5: Structure

§ 1. The structure of CICIAMS membership is comprised of national members from five designated geographical regions. The regions are:

a) English Speaking Africa
b) French Speaking Africa
c) Asia
d) Europe
e) Pan American Region

The number of members of CICIAMS is unlimited but must comprise at least two national members. The languages of CICIAMS are English and French.

§ 2. The four types and requirement of membership are:

a) Full Membership is for national associations. It is required that each national member association shall be Catholic in nature and shall have been approved by their competent Ecclesiastical Authority. Each Full Member association is bound by the statutes, regulations and organisational structures of CICIAMS, approved the General Council while keeping their own autonomy. Each national association has one vote at the General Council Meetings.

b) Associated Membership is for professional associations that do not meet the conditions laid down in the CICIAMS regulations for full membership such as hospitals, health care institutions, nursing colleges and other professional associations. Each Associated Member or individual member can resign from CICIAMS at any time. They are bound by the statutes, regulations and organisational structures of CICIAMS and approved by the General Council.

c) Individual Membership is for Catholic individuals associated with the Health Care Professions. They are required to provide a letter from their pastor. The individual members must be approved by the Executive Board.

d) Honorary Membership is for individuals who will be recognised for outstanding services rendered to CICIAMS. Names may be submitted to the General Secretary three months prior to a General Council Meeting. They will be elected by the General Council.

Art. 6: Resignations/Discharge of Members

§ 1. Resignation of members from CICIAMS shall be made in writing by way of a letter signed by the President and Secretary of the member association and sent to the General Secretary of CICIAMS. The Executive Board will acknowledge the resignation. The individual member may resign with a letter to the General Secretary. The Executive Board will acknowledge the resignation.

§ 2. Membership of CICAMS shall be withdrawn from a member association where there is evidence of noncompliance with the statutes. The exclusion will be determined by the General Council by simple majority vote after evidence has been presented and the member association has been given the opportunity to respond to the accusation.

Art. 7: Fees

§ 1. Payment of membership fees: All member associations pay a fee to CICIAMS annually, which will be used to realize its aims. The amount of the fee is determined by the General Council. Notice of fees due are sent on June 1st and fees are due by June 30th.

III. GOVERNMENT

§ 2. The Regional Presidents are elected by Member Associations of their regions, approved by the General Council for a four-year term and can be re-elected for a further four years.

a) The Regional President’s duties include coordinating CICIAMS activities in his/her region, representing the interests of the Region as a member of the Executive Board, taking account of the global nature and interests of CICIAMS, submitting an annual report, including a financial statement to the Executive Board and proposing the venue, date and programme of seminars organised by the Region.

b) A report is required at every Executive Board and General Council Meeting.
§ 3. The Secretary General is elected by the General Council for a four-year term and can be re-elected for a further four years.

a) The Secretary General’s duties include managing the General Secretariat, maintaining official relations with intergovernmental and international organisations, carrying out the decisions taken by the General Council and the Executive Board, reporting on activities of CICIAMS to the General Council and the Executive Board, acting as liaison between CICIAMS and its member associations. He/she maintains contact with other International Catholic and Professional Organisations, coordinates the work of the committees and promotes the international character of the Secretariat. The Secretary General is authorised to make all decisions that are necessary in connection with the daily management of the General Secretariat. He/she carries out the work with the financial budget proposed by the finance committee and approved by the Executive Board.

b) A report is required at each Executive Board and General Council Meeting.

§ 4. The Treasurer is elected by the General Council for a four-year term and can be elected for a further four years.

a) The Treasurer’s duties are to chair the Finance Committee, to manage the finances of CICIAMS, collect fees fixed by the General Council, collect finances and make disbursements as necessary. He/she prepares and submits a projected budget to the General Council for the following two years. The Treasurer submits a financial report to the Executive Board and the General Council at each meeting. He/she prepares the annual statement of accounts for auditing, makes payments as approved by the Executive Board and presents a financial statement of income and expenditure at each meeting.

b) A report is required for each Executive and General Council Meeting.

§ 5. The CICIAMS Executive Board shall select the Ecclesiastical Assistant for a four-year term. The General Council confirms him. The Ecclesiastical Assistant must be confirmed by the Pontifical Council for the Laity (cf. CIC, can.324 § 2). He must obtain the prior agreement of his Ordinary. The Ecclesiastical Assistant is invited to attend all congresses and various meetings of CICIAMS and its committees. He shall support the spiritual needs of the members and provide guidance in moral and ethical issues. He has no vote.

§ 6. The Chairpersons of Permanent Committees and Representatives to International Bodies are elected by the General Council for a four-year term and may be elected for a further four-year term.

a) Each of the five regions is to obtain a member for each of the permanent committees.

b) Chairpersons of the Permanent Committees are:
Statutes
Finance
Professional
Midwives
Family
Ethics

c) Representatives to International Bodies are:
   World Health Organisation
   United Nations Department of Information and ECOSOC

d) The Chairpersons of the Permanent Committees and Representatives to the international bodies must submit reports on their activities at each Executive Board and General Council Meeting.

e) Delegates appointed by the General Council to the Executive Board for a specific project are members of the Executive Board until the specific needs are met and a report has been given.

Art. 10: Duties and Responsibilities of the Executive Board

§ 1. Duties and responsibilities of the Executive Board are:

a) The International Officers should hold a meeting once a year apart from the full Executive Board Meeting

b) The full Executive Board should hold a meeting once a year and more often if necessary

c) The Executive Board is responsible for the management of CICIAMS between the meetings of the General Council and conducts its activities according to the directives from the General Council

d) The Executive Board will manage the affairs of CICIAMS and will have full authorisation to act in every circumstance that is not distinctly reserved by law or the regulations of the General Council. The Executive Board will act as claimant or defender in all lawsuits. The Executive Board will proclaim all internal regulations that it finds appropriate and useful

e) The Executive Board can only make valid consultations and decisions if the majority of the international officers are present or represented. Each member of the Executive Board has one vote. A simple majority of the votes makes decisions. The vote of the International President or the person who replaces him/her will be decisive in case of lack of majority

f) In case of emergency, decisions of the Executive Board can also be made outside a meeting. In that case, all members of the board should be informed in detail in writing or by E-mail prior to the decision to be made. They should also give their consent in writing with the reason for their decision. Decisions made in this manner should be ratified during the next Executive Board Meeting.

g) The members of the Executive Board should be, as far as possible, chosen from the different regions and countries to maintain CICIAMS international identity.

h) The Executive Board may execute actions for removal/suspension of an Executive Officer, Chairs/members of any Permanent Committees, International Representatives or special Delegates for misdemeanour or incompetence. A simple majority vote is required at an Executive Board Meeting.

Art. 11: Voting

§ 1. At least six months prior to the anticipated date of election all member associations of CICIAMS will be advised by the Secretary General of the vacancies to be filled within the Executive Board. The associations will send nominations to the Secretary General within three months of the date of elections.

a) The same person can be presented for several functions within the Executive Board.

b) The candidates must be members of their national association and be sufficiently available to fulfil their function.

c) The nomination of the candidate should include a Curriculum Vitae, an application letter from the candidate and a written approval of the association of which the candidate is a member. If the member association does not respond within three months before the election date, it loses the right to present a candidate.

d) The list of nominees for all open positions is prepared by the Secretary General and submitted to the Executive Board for approval. The list of the approved candidates for the election with their Curriculum Vitae must be sent to all member associations prior to the General Council Meeting.

e) There must be a quorum of a simple majority of paid members at the General Council Meeting for the voting to take place. The associations unable to be present at a General Council Meeting should send their voting preferences in a sealed envelope to the Chairperson of the Committee on Statutes, which will only be opened at the count of votes. Each association member has one vote for each position.

f) In order to ensure compliance with the regulations surrounding Elections and Vote Counting, the Committee on Statutes will select an Ad Hoc Committee of Scrutinisers consisting of five persons, delegates from associations not proposing candidates for election and as far as possible representing each Region.

g) These Scrutinisers will be presented by the Executive Board to the General Council for approval. The sealed envelopes containing the votes by proxy will be opened in the presence of the Chairperson of the Committee on Statutes

h) A simple majority is required. The International President will announce the results following verification by the Scrutinisers and the Committee on Statutes.

IV. TEMPORAL GOODS

Art. 12: Resources

The resources of CICIAMS include the annual fee from member associations; subsidies, gifts and grants that might be given to CICIAMS; the Solidarity Fund to be used according to the regulations of the Solidarity Fund set up by the General Council; sponsorship for projects; and profit from World Congresses and Regional Seminars. The financial year of CICIAMS is from January 1\textsuperscript{st} until December 31\textsuperscript{st}, unless a contrary decision is made by the General Council. The Executive Board will close all invoices of the past financial year and will prepare for the estimation of the coming financial year.

V. DISSOLUTION

Art. 13: Process for Dissolution

§ 1. Before making any decisions regarding the dissolution of CICIAMS, the International President will consult the Pontifical Council for the Laity, which must give its assent prior to any vote on dissolution.

§ 2. After consultation with the Pontifical Council for the Laity, the General Council Members must be notified three months in advance of a Special General Council Meeting to address decisions regarding dissolution and the liquidation of the assets of CICIAMS. It will require two-thirds majority vote at the meeting of the General Council where at least half of the full paid members are present or represented.

§ 3. In the event of the dissolution of CICIAMS, the attribution of any remaining assets will be determined by a simple majority of the members or their representatives present at the General Council Meeting, taking into consideration the aims of CICIAMS and in favour of its member associations.

VI. MODIFICATION OF STATUTES AND OTHER RULES

Art. 14: Process for Modifications
§ 1. CICIAMS operates in conformity with Canon Law. Questions not specified by the current Statutes can be ordered by internal rules under Canon Law or according to the civil legal system of the country in which the General Secretariat is based, unless prejudicial to rights and duties under Canon Law.

§ 2. Any member association or the Executive Board may submit an amendment proposal. All the amendment proposals concerning these Statutes must be sent to the Secretary General. The proposals must be sent by the Secretary General to be examined by the General Council Members six months before the General Council Meeting that will vote on them. Amendments shall be considered approved only if voted by a majority of two-thirds of paid members or representatives present at the General Council Meeting. Any modification to the Statutes requires the approval of the Pontifical Council for the Laity before coming into effect.
